Eureka! The eureka! team's new project called eureka! was published to its GitHub Repository.. In 1956 Ganzalis became Director of Studies in the Faculty of the History of Political Science at the University of Munich, where he taught for a number of years. Over these years he developed a theory of history (the study of states in the past) in a manner suitable, as he saw it, for the study of modern states under international conflict. He has written extensively on the history of Germany and occupied Europe, and he is among the leading experts on the history of the Soviet Union. An author also known for his interest in political development and for making popular comment at political conferences, he is professor emeritus of history at the University of Munich. Ganzalis was chairman of the executive committee of the National Conference of German Unions from 1967 to 1973, where he was a member of the executive of the Munich branch of the German Labor Society, and is a trustee of the Munich Foundation. He is authoring the book "The People's History of Germany - an examination of the history of the state of Bavaria, from the foundation of the Holy Roman Empire (1814 to 1794)". He was president of the Union of German Unions, a political party affiliated with the Social-Democratic Social-Democratic-Liberal Party (SPD) from 1960 to 1990. He was a leader of the European Union from 1980, and the current chair of its European Union Committee, since 1990, is Peter Maas. - Efficient (A) Linear Algebra for the Fourier Transform..
